Our local Government, headed by Mr. R. T. Brown, lately elected Mayor under the Victorian Education Department, looks up to the school system with some interest. This school only closed for a week, it will consequently re-open on Monday. In fact, the school attendance will be increased by several expected new scholars. We are glad to hear of the permanent establishment of this school, as it will be a great convenience to many parents who require private tuition for their children, and the large surrounding district is quite ready to support a grammar school.

At a meeting of the Northcote Council, held in the evening of the 27th inst., the Mayor, Mr. R. T. Brown, presided. The Mayor reported that the Council had received a letter from the Education Department regarding the school system. The Mayor stated that the school attendance had been very satisfactory, and that the Council was prepared to support the permanent establishment of the school.

Professional. THE Northcote & Clifton Hill Grammar School. (Near the Northcote Bridge). PRINCIPAL: Mr R. T. ELOATE. (Late of New Zealand). M. ELOATE hopes that in School, a want will be filled which must have been long felt by parents who have seen compelled to send their children away from home to receive their education. The school was opened in 1887, and has since that time been the highest testimonials of efficiency. The work of the school will be carried out practically and methodically, on the basis of the soundest and latest educational theories. The greatest care will be taken to cultivate the reasoning faculties of the pupils, and the result of which is so often forgotten, but at the same time Mr. ELOATE can promise the same good results which have always attended his efforts hitherto. All pupils will receive a thorough training suitable to the requirements of the profession they intend to follow. Pupils will be prepared for Matriculation, Public Service and Scholarship Examinations. The school begins from day of entry. Prospective, with testimonials and references, from the Rev. C. P. Thomas, Northcote, and G. Stanes, Esq., through Surveyor, Northcote. A Night School is also held in connection with the school. Mr. ELOATE intends opening a Class for candidates preparing for the Examinations, and those wishing to obtain a "Specialist's Certificate" (a specialty) examination, please apply to Mr. R. T. ELOATE, at the school.
