PEARL'S soap. INDISPUTABLE EVIDENCE OF SUPERIORITY. My analytical and practical experience of Pearl's Soap now extends over a very lengthened period—nearly fifty years—during which time "I have never come across another Toilet Soap which so closely realises my ideal of perfection; its purity is such that it may be used with perfect confidence upon the tenderest and most sensitive skin, even that of a new-born babe."

GRINESE TORTURES. (Special Correspondent.) Whenever they are taken to the Chinese are cruel conquerors. They often torture their captives by the use of various instruments, and even upon the unwillingness of the torturer to use any of these instruments, the Chinese will resort to the most cruel and painful of all tortures, the use of the hot iron.

A REMARKABLE LADY. (Special Correspondent.) Mrs. Annie Abbott, who comes from the United States, is thought to be the only woman in the world who has been able to hold the body from behind. After her husband's death, she was unable to get up without the aid of her hands, which she held behind her back.

THE AFGHAN AMIR. (Special Correspondent.) The Amir of Afghanistan, Abdurrahman Khan, is a ruler of considerable ability. He has succeeded in maintaining the independence of his country against the encroachments of the British and the Russians.

BOGOSLOF VOLCANO. (By J. C. CANTWELL, JR., "WHEELS.") Just south of the equator, on the African continent, and situated about forty miles from the Gulf of Aden, is a volcano named Bogoslof. It is a small island which has been known since the discovery of the Pacific Ocean.

THE LADIES COLUMN. LADY'S GOSPEL. (Special Correspondent.) Margaret Alphonse, a French girl, is reported to have been the first woman in the world to have been crowned with a laurel wreath. She was crowned in the city of Rome, Italy, in the year 1880.

DOES TERROR KILL? (Special Correspondent.) A man named John Doe, who was a member of the London Police Force, was reported to have been killed by a woman named Jane Smith. The woman was reported to have been in a state of extreme nervousness at the time of the killing.

THE YOUNG FOLKS. GATHING HIGH SEA TURTLES. (Special Correspondent.) A party of young people, consisting of a man and a woman, were reported to have been seen on the high seas. They were seen by a party of fishermen, who were out on a fishing party.

RHEUMATISM AND GOUT. (Special Correspondent.) Rheumatism is a common condition of the joints, and is caused by the deposition of uric acid in the joints. It is characterized by pain, swelling, and redness of the joints.
