Under the broken key in the Right Direction, a lady recently wrote to the editor... BURGLARY AT NORTHCOTE. A SENSATIONAL INCIDENT. CONSTABLE WARREN NEARLY KILLED.

It appears that Constable Warren, when on his beat at the hour mentioned, noticed that the door of Mr. Murdoch, the ironmonger's shop had been tampered with, the lock having been almost wrangled off... The burglar was seen to enter the shop and to take some articles...

From circumstantial evidence it would appear that the burglar was a man of about 30 years of age, of medium height, with dark hair and eyes, and wearing a dark coat and trousers... The burglar was seen to enter the shop and to take some articles...

NORTHCOTE TOWN COUNCIL. "ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE." Coming from his work yesterday afternoon Mr. Bennett, of Herbert street, who resides in the Northcote Park area across the body of a new-born female child. An old grey-haired woman was found round the body, which was wrapped in a brown paper parcel. The police were called to the effect that he had visited the place where three animals had been buried. He learned that they were too far decomposed to be removed, but could see they had been properly buried, and disinfected, the graves having been gathered in the pursuit of their calling - "Rogues."

NORTHCOTE WELGAYN CHURCH. HARVEST THANKSGIVING. It is a long time since we were so large a congregation as occupied the church on Sunday last. The particular attraction being the harvest thanksgiving service. It was the occasion of the first of those who carried out the arrangements for the service, and who were present in connection with the church, to make the event one of a memorable character. The service was a very happy one, and the offering of all good, which was the most successful ever. At every step of the service the choir, the organ, and the ministrants all of them, the deep windows were filled with the light of the candles which with clusters of grapes and olive-branches sprang from the altar.

CRICKET NOTES. NORTHCOTE THAD'S V. CLIFTON HILL TRIA. The match was played at Northcote on Saturday afternoon. The batting was well supported. The bowling was also good. The result was a draw. The match was well attended, and the spectators were much interested in the play.

THE LEADER. Published every Saturday Morning. PRICE—ONE PENNY.

SATURDAY, 20th FEBRUARY. The melancholy intelligence came from the beginning of the week that Mr. Thomas C. Lightfoot, son of Mr. Thos. Lightfoot, of James-street, Northcote, had been drowned whilst out boating. A letter received by Mr. Lightfoot on Thursday describes the manner in which the sad event occurred. The boat was out with a companion, Mr. Hyman, in a canvas boat, and was out on the water. Mr. Lightfoot is a fine swimmer, but exhausted himself in a fit of anger, and was pulled under. Mr. Lightfoot had purchased the boat, but had been out in it several times before the accident. The deceased was a professional engineer in Brisbane, had a bright career, and was well known in the district. He was a member of the Northcote Club, and was a member of the Northcote Club, and was a member of the Northcote Club.
