TEAMEN & DAIRY PRODUCE
MERCHANTS,
HIGH STREET, NORTHCOTE.

Northcote Public seem to "catch on."
Our establishment's the fashion.
For which we hereby offer hearty thanks.
Every thing we sell so nice is
Both in quality and price.
That it far above competing dealers ranks.
Henceforth we called attention
And made lengthy special mention
In regard to TEA, a quite unrivalled branch.
To seek custom and inspection
In a different direction
These simple little verses now we launch.
As sweet as any nut, or
Rose, or Violet, is our BUTTER—
'Tis the "Acme" brand and "Separator"
No suspicion round it lingers [made
Of a trace of dirty fingers;
And our EGGS are sold almost as soon as laid.

We our reputation stake on
All our CHEESE and HAM and BACON,
In fact no opposition can compete;
Without fear of contradiction,
We assert it is no fiction,
We're the CHEAPEST house and BEST in all the street.

THE NORTHCOLE LEADER, SATURDAY, MARCH 4, 1893.
Some of my readers may think that this notice, which is only a kind of advertisement, is not very interesting.
But I have no objection to its being so.

A CRIME ON THE LINE.
About five miles from London terminus the trunk railway, swinging in the direction of the sea, crossed the London and South Western railway, and lay there by a somewhat narrow gauge.

A LOAN FROM A GHOST.
A good many years ago the station at which the trunk railway crossed the London and South Western railway was a small one.
