in hand the work at once. Cr. Peart seconded and Cr. Bagley supported the resolution. The time was opportune, as it would provide work for the men who were chop. Cr. Hutton was not so sure of the advantage of the local erecting of their own. There was a saying that "God blesses those who build for themselves." If the board wished to economize in this way let them apply to the Government for accommodation in some of their buildings, as they have offices and elsewhere. Cr. McLean supported the motion. The idea was a good one. Cr. Dennis agreed with Cr.
Hutton. The design was a good one, but it was fixed in good times.
What would it be when the lease was up?
