Northcote Public seem to "catch on,"
Our establishment's the fashion,
For which we have other hearty thanks.
Every thing we sell as nice as,
Both in quality and price,
That is far above competing dealers ranks.
Henceforth we called attention
And made lengthy special mention
In regard to TEA, a quite unrivalled branch.
To seek custom and inspection
In a different direction.
These simple little verses now we launch.
As sweet as any nut, or
Rose, or Violet, is our BUTTER—
'Tis the "Acme" brand and "Separator"
No suspicion round its fingers
Of a trace of dirty fingers
And our EGGS are sold almost as soon as laid.
We our reputation stake on
All our CHEESE and HAM and BACON,
In fact no opposition can compete;
Without fear of contradiction,
We assert it is no fiction,
We're the CHEAPEST house and BEST in all the street.

WANTED, A FAIRY PALACE OF DELIGHT. By Lady June. In the National Review, Lady June discusses the "Amusements of the Poor," and makes some suggestions which may bring forth good fruit...

A GREAT FAIRY PALACE. A great fairy palace might rise in its delight to the poor neighbours. It need not be a very costly affair to turn it into a place where the recreation and amusement I have been describing might be carried on.

THE TERRIBLE NAVAL DISASTER. SINKING OF H.M.S. VICTORIA. Lines by Davis Coghlan. Let all who have their entire land bowled off the Victoria and her gallant crew that sank in the night...

Victorian Black Coal. Specially suited for use in Stoves or Open, as it burns with intense heat, is almost smokeless, and does not clinker at all.

THE INCOME TAX.

MR. HARPER, M.L.A., SPEAKS IN OPPOSITION.

Mr. Harper said—One of the greatest difficulties about the Treasury's statement was that he did not give them the opportunity of judging on the basis of his proposals... The Premier had given his support to the Government... He felt keenly the position in which he was placed, because he had given his support to the Government...

How to Help your Town—Keep the money in the place.

Mr. Gladstone asked...

Mr. Gladstone asked the question of the money in the place. Buy all you can in the place. The man who has invested his capital in stores, workshops and other business places, are building up the town, and they should be encouraged... Advertising is an eloquent and effective 'salesman'—distinguished from the verbal salesman in this, that while the latter talks to one customer the advertising salesman is talking to tens of thousands of 'customers'.
