BENSHAW'S GLEANING QUEST. BY BERTRAM MITFORD. Author of 'The Old House, a Romance of the North', 'The House of the Future', 'The House of the Past'.

The day before yesterday I was out for a walk in the Northcote Park. The air was cool and the ground was damp from the rain of the night before.

The morning sun was out, and the air was warm and pleasant. I was walking in the Northcote Park, and I was looking at the trees and the grass.

The weather was very good, and I was enjoying it very much. I was walking in the Northcote Park, and I was looking at the trees and the grass.

the selection of the route to Parliament. Mr. and Mrs. Collins (Collingwood) protested against the municipalities being bound to a particular route. It was generally held that the Collingwood route was the best, but Mr. Harper, M.L.A., reminded that when he found the districts north of the Merri Creek had agreed upon the direct route, he felt it his duty to support that route.

Mr. Collins (Collingwood) said it was not coming here to waste time in discussing the merits of the various routes. They had decided upon a route that would accommodate Collingwood, and he had much pleasure in giving it his emphatic support.

Mr. Harper, M.L.A., said he would attend the conference to listen, not to speak, but he thought it right to state to the arguments he had formed the conclusion that the Fitzroy route was the better one.
