PROFESSOR THULINIUS.
MY DEAR SIR,—I feel I should be wanting in duty did I neglect the opportunity of sending you my testimony as to the wondrous efficacy of your rheumatic specific.
For the past ten years I have been a complete martyr to rheumatism in all its forms.
I have tried doctors and hospitals at various times of suffering, and also, I think, every form of advertised remedies, and also followed the advice of well-meaning friends, with a view of effecting a cure for this most trying disease. All that I have been able to accomplish hitherto has been, at best, temporary relief from pain. I am well known, and scores can testify that at best I could only crawl about with difficulty, and am agitated to re-enter my profession, added to which my off-repeated attacks of surprise at my present agility in getting about from place to place. After leaving Little Bay Hospital at the close of last year, I was persuaded to try a bottle of your "Thulinus," and in a week or so afterwards I could get about fairly well. Upon again suffering a relapse last February, I took another bottle, with an equally successful result;
but at last I determined to go through a course of treatment, and have just completed my fourth bottle, with the gratifying knowledge that I am now free from pain, can walk my reasonable distance without fatigue, have an excellent appetite, and feel myself entirely competent to re-enter my profession, added to which my off-repeated attacks of pleasantry have become things of the past. I have not died myself in any way, so all the credit is due to your wonderful remedy, under Providence, that my blood is becoming purer daily, and its effects upon my liver and kidneys most pronounced. I send you with this the date of my previous attacks and sufferings should you wish to show them.
I shall only be too glad personally to convince fellow sufferers of the benefits to be derived from a course of your treatment, as exemplified in my own case after ten years'
martyrdom.—I remain yours faithfully
W. H. NEWTON NEWMAN.
Teacher of Elcctricity, and twenty-five years Actor and Manager.
The Rev. J. D. Lavelle, St. Philip's paragon, can testify as to the crippled state of Mr. Newman prior to his taking "Thulinus."

Practical Hints. By SOONER IN THURSDAY'S PUNCH. A new crisis in the year's work...

THE POLITICAL BOWLING GREEN.

It was not a little significant that at the very time when the taxpayers' House was strenuously repelling the Land Tax Bill, the Assembly members were just as vigorously fighting a salary tax measure.

The Government was on a division by 60 votes to 20. But the 20 votes were all their own supporters, and the sixty were those of their enemies.

At twelve o'clock Mr. Murray says, "We will go home." "No you won't," said the Premier. "But we will."

At twelve o'clock Mr. Murray says, "We will go home." "No you won't," said the Premier. "But we will."

We are still left quite in doubt as to what is to be the outcome of the constitutional difficulty between the two Houses.

A PRINCE'S LOVE STORY.

By J. MACLEAREN COBURN.

CHAPTER I.—(Continued.)

He had expected different conduct from me, I am sure. What have you done with my daughter? You have not even asked me if I have any objection to your marrying her. You have not even asked me if I have any objection to your marrying her. You have not even asked me if I have any objection to your marrying her.

UNCLE SAM'S ARMY.

HOW IT IS RECRUITED.

NO MARKED MEN APPLY.

A crowd of some size had gathered under the American flag which floated from the top of the flagpole. The crowd was composed of men of various ages and complexions, and they were all looking towards the speaker who stood on a raised platform.

THE POLITICAL BOWLING GREEN.

By Scores in Thursday's Punch

I don't remember an instance prior to this week when the House of Assembly has ever met on a Monday. It did so this week and relieved its embarrassed heart over the railways. It does a man a world of good to have a good rumble. And of all grinders the grinders' members are properly the most persistent grinders. Mr. Brako is the Single Tax member who sits for Horsham. He believes in a Land Tax as one of the best things. But it was his hard lot to have to vote continually against the Government measure. His constituents exacted a promise from him. He sat silent in the house for weeks and simply voted.

This week he has relieved himself from the post-up force resulting from his long abstinence. He has achieved the distinction of being the only man who ever secured a Monday's sitting. He wants to get the farmers' railways freighted to the extent of £500,000, and he will then consent to a Land Tax with the sanction of his constituents.

"It was pretty rough on me," he explained, "to have to sit here and vote against a tax I believed in. But now, if the House have their say, I shall be able to get the railways freighted to the extent of £500,000, and I will then consent to a Land Tax with the sanction of his constituents."

And then the House set to work and talked over it—talked from twelve o'clock at noon till nearly seven o'clock at night, finishing as it began, with nothing but words. It must have been delightful to members to sit and listen and watch, with no sense of responsibility—only to hear and learn.

I have often been struck with the marvellous difficulty that exists in determining simple matters of fact. Take an instance. Mr. Irvine said in the course of a short speech that railway freight in New South Wales was lower than in Victoria. "Higher," shouted Mr. Murray. "Lower," I think," repeated Mr. Irvine. "Higher," shouted Mr. Murray. "Lower," I think," repeated Mr. Irvine. "Higher," shouted Mr. Murray. "Lower," I think," repeated Mr. Irvine.

Clearly, that is not a matter of opinion at all. It is one of simple fact. Both colonies have their scale printed. It is open for any man's examination. The Argo and the Age have examined it. One paper says the Victorian charges are higher. The other says they are lower. Mr. Wheeler has examined it. He says they are lower. Mr. Styles has done the same and agrees with Mr. Wheeler. Mr. Richardson also looked into it, and pronounced Victorian charges to be cheaper than those of New South Wales. Mr. Williams, thinking to do the matter himself, examined the matter himself and ordered his clerks, messengers and Traffic Manager to furnish him with an independent report. He told the Assembly the result, that Victorian charges are the lower. But in spite of all this, Mr. McCall jumps up and protests that he can prove from the documents that New South Wales has the advantage of cheapness. Who shall decide when doctors disagree?

When we come to look into the case, what do we find? Why, that both are right, just according to the cases they are stating. The Argo picks out wheat, oats, flour, and chaff, and shows that these things are carried more cheaply in New South Wales than in Victoria. And the statement is quite true. By selecting a few things the case is made good. The Age takes the whole freight traffic and analyses it down to the average, and finds that in New South Wales the freight is low history is made and contradicted.

Mr. Gillies, poor fellow, had a bad time in the Assembly on Tuesday night—in a House where he had often been a hero. It was tough and gut whether he should not be subjected to the indignity of a straight recall. But at this juncture, to the credit of human nature, Mr. Deakin came to the rescue of his old colleague with one of his fiery defenses that the House always likes, even when it does not agree with it. The Assembly did not like to do a bad-natured thing to an absent man, and yet it felt that it was more than half convinced a wrong.

But this was not the only speech that Mr. Deakin made in his old form. He had sat and listened while some despicable things were being said of the lawyers. Mr. Joly Anderson, one of the most good-natured souls in Parliament, was his latest aggressor. Mr. Deakin sprang to his feet. He was angry, and when Deakin is really angry, he is not in his best humor. He used his rhetorical rapier like a fury. In a second or two John Anderson fell prostrate with a dozen places. But he doesn't take punishment quietly. He lunged back indignantly and the House watched the fight with interest. I take it from these ebullitions of temper on Mr. Deakin's part that he is not in such good health as usual.

Practical Hints.

THE COUNCIL CHIEFS under the Constitutional restriction that it cannot amend money bills. It never chafed so much before. It seems to have discovered a new grievance in the limitation of its powers. Yet that limitation has been known to work for forty years. Why so much petulance now?

Extremes meet. Donald Melville is the Radical of the Legislature. He is "the terror." In the Assembly he might be a Labour leader. In the Council his Radicalism takes the form of leading all the parties against the Assembly.

In the Lower Chamber things are growing mixed. Mr. Murray Smith is making to say soft things by way of compliment to some of the Labour members. And Mr. Trenwith is apparently a level headed man. He believes that Trenwith could be bought with money, but I do not believe he is particularly susceptible to flattery.

I could tell you the Labour leader's follies. He lingers after the reputation of being a very moderate Radical. He likes all things, while maintaining his own side to be granted as the best of his party. But beyond that he plays up to the Argo of the "conservative" Radical. He chides three or four times a week to be considered. He is Joseph of old, "a just man in the part he took in the Gillies episode." He was particularly noticeable when he was always Mr. Gillies' opponent, and yet how magnanimous he was in this treatment. He even though he believed him to be the wrong man in the place. This sort of thing may really be done. Don't overdo it, Trenwith, my lad; don't overdo it.
