SUNNY ITALY. The trip from Alexandria across the Mediterranean to Naples is an interesting one. We had the good fortune to pass Sicily on our morning and had an exceptionally fine view of Mount Etna, towering away in the clouds.

It was a most interesting sight. The volcano was covered in a thick layer of ash, and the surrounding landscape was a hazy landscape of grey and black.

AT HOME WITH THE MOUNTED BIFES. A PRESTON ROY'S EXPERIENCES.

In letters to his relatives, Mr. "Charlie" Preston, one of the lucky ones selected to represent the military forces of Victoria at the Diamond Jubilee Celebration, tells of the good time he is having.

Writing from Chelsea Barracks on June 18, he says: "We went to a race yesterday, and had a good time. It is, but the course cannot touch Flemington. The style, though, was great. All the big people were there.

We met plenty of people who are only too pleased to see us out and show us round. In fact, sometimes it becomes a joyous nuisance. We are full of enthusiasm now.

By noon, the illuminations on Tuesday will be something wonderful. Preparations everywhere are in full swing.

Everywhere there are getting out their best. There is a big crowd here every day.

It is a grand sight to see the crowds of people that are gathered here every day.

The crowds are very large, and the people are very happy. It is a very interesting sight.

At last, after a long and tiring day, we are able to get some rest.

MISERABLE WOMAN. HOW WOMEN LOST INTEREST IN THEIR HOUSEHOLDS.

Kindred ailments—ills to which women are liable—cause much misery. The experience of women who have suffered and how they regained their health.

Mr. F. W. Stevens is well known in Tulkiville, Ill. For the past 6 years he has conducted the business of a coal and wood yard in this city.

By some of the newspapers it is stated that Mr. Stevens is a coal and wood yard, but this is not the case.

Another letter says: "I was once very weak and my health was in a very bad way."

It is a very interesting story of a woman who was once very ill and how she recovered her health.

Short Story.

Mamette Leonot.

By K. TANDI ROAY. Mamette Leonot was an artist not in the sense understood by the artist with the brush, but in the sense of a woman who had a heart as true as any that ever beat.

Her highest ambition was to be a mother. Her highest ambition was to be a mother. Her highest ambition was to be a mother.

A Visit to Mount Lyell. Questions are a decidedly rare place. It is very unattractive in fact, wherever you turn. The streets have been laid out systematically, and the buildings are of a very inferior quality. Money is evidently being rapidly made, but the impulse has come upon it so suddenly, as to suggest the idea that it is over-growing its time. There are a few fine mansions, but they are all of a very inferior quality. The houses are all of a very inferior quality. The houses are all of a very inferior quality.

THE LEADER.
 Published every Saturday Morning.
 SATURDAY, 28th AUGUST, 1897.
 The Treasurer delivered the Budget speech on Thursday evening last, and his return from the Jubilee festivities on Friday morning. The subject of the budget was the most important of the day, and attracted the attention of all who were present. The Treasurer's speech was a most interesting one, and dealt with the financial condition of the colony, the revenue, and the expenditure. He pointed out the need for economy, and the necessity of increasing the revenue to meet the increasing demands of the colony.

Localisms.
 The mayor-elect for Northcote (Mr. C. J. Mackenzie) was elected on Wednesday night, and will take office on Monday morning. He is a well-known local politician, and has been active in public affairs for many years. His election is considered a triumph for the local party, and is expected to bring about a more liberal policy in the management of the town's affairs.

Municipal Elections.
 The Northcote Municipal Council will meet on Monday night next to consider the budget for the coming year. The council is expected to approve the mayor's budget, which provides for an increase in the rates to meet the needs of the town. The council will also discuss the proposed alterations to the town's boundaries, and the need for additional services.

General.
 The Northcote Cycling Club will hold their annual meeting on Saturday night next. The meeting will be held at the club's headquarters, and will be a most interesting one. The members will discuss the club's affairs, and will elect a committee for the coming year. The club is a well-known one in the district, and has many active members.

Drinks.
 The Northcote Cricket Club will hold their annual meeting on Saturday night next. The meeting will be held at the club's headquarters, and will be a most interesting one. The members will discuss the club's affairs, and will elect a committee for the coming year. The club is a well-known one in the district, and has many active members.

Public Notice.
 Notice is hereby given that the Northcote Municipal Council will meet on Monday night next to consider the budget for the coming year. The council is expected to approve the mayor's budget, which provides for an increase in the rates to meet the needs of the town. The council will also discuss the proposed alterations to the town's boundaries, and the need for additional services.

Preston.
 The Preston Municipal Council will meet on Monday night next to consider the budget for the coming year. The council is expected to approve the mayor's budget, which provides for an increase in the rates to meet the needs of the town. The council will also discuss the proposed alterations to the town's boundaries, and the need for additional services.

West Riding.
 The West Riding Municipal Council will meet on Monday night next to consider the budget for the coming year. The council is expected to approve the mayor's budget, which provides for an increase in the rates to meet the needs of the town. The council will also discuss the proposed alterations to the town's boundaries, and the need for additional services.

General Elections.
 The general elections for the House of Representatives will be held on September 21st. The election will be a most important one, and will determine the composition of the next Parliament. The various parties are expected to have a keen contest, and the result is expected to be a close one.

Supplement to the Leader.
 This supplement contains a number of articles and notices of interest. It includes a report on the Northcote Municipal Council's meeting, and a notice of the Northcote Cycling Club's annual meeting. It also contains a number of local news items, and a list of public notices.

Asparagus.
 In preparing asparagus for cooking, select the best quality of the vegetable, and wash it thoroughly in cold water. Cut it into the desired length, and cook it in salted water until it is tender. It can be served plain, or with a variety of sauces. It is a most nutritious food, and is especially good for the stomach.

All about Tea.
 A little care in the selection and preparation of tea will make a great difference in its flavor. Select the best quality of tea, and brew it in a clean teapot. Do not use too much tea, and do not steep it for too long. The result will be a most delicious and refreshing beverage.

See Waid and Rejected.
 At the time when Europe was very weak, India, and especially the British India, were the main sources of strength. The British Empire was at its height, and the British flag flew over a vast area of the world. The British were the most powerful nation of the time, and their influence was felt in every part of the globe.

There are very few housewives who do not do the laundry. In preparing the laundry, it is important to use the best quality of soap, and to wash the clothes thoroughly. Do not use too much soap, and do not wash for too long. The result will be clean and fresh laundry, ready for use.

Manager's Favorite.
 The Tragedy of Carmel Street is a most interesting play, and is a favorite of the manager. It tells the story of a woman who is wrongly accused of a crime, and who is eventually cleared of all charges. The play is a most powerful one, and is well worth a see.
