SUPPLEMENT TO THE LEADER, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1898.

ABOUT SOLDIERS' WIVES.

The wife of an American soldier—when he happens to be married—is a comparatively new thing. But it is not a new thing where the conditions are at its worst in England.

EARLY INQUISITIVENESS.

"Papa!" "I was two o'clock in the morning, and I had no sleep."

SHE WON THE ARGUMENT.

His wife likes to read lots of information to him. She reads the Leader and the Times and she reads out to him every morning for the car. He on his part has his own share of reading.

AN IRISH SOLDIER'S FURLOUGH.

In a column of 175, some private soldiers of the 1st Buffs were on furlough and they were in the habit of going to the theatre.

TO GROW MISTLETOE.

As the festive season has just come and many will have made an effort to grow mistletoe.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A well-constructed brick house will outlast a wooden one.

CONJUGIAL BILLS.

MOTHERS UP ENGLAND. Better than that college honours.

AGRICULTURAL BOARD ACCOUNTS.

The Secretary Metropolitan Board of Works wrote forwarding accounts showing the independence of the committee.

MEMORIAL DRAINAGE ACT.

The Slieve Donard, Coln, without length pointing out the necessity of amending the Municipal Drainage Act.

AN ABSENT MAN'S WEDDING DAY.

When John Keable, the great tragedian, was married, he went to the theatre in the habit of going to the theatre.

MILK SUPPLY REGULATIONS.

The Municipal Association are preparing a resolution to be presented to the council.

PUBLIC WORKS COMMITTEE.

Cr. Crisp submitted the report, recommended by the committee.

WHAT IS THE BEST FOOD?

A scientific experiment was conducted at the British Medical Association.

TENNIS AND HIS RUSTY.

The admiration of Lord Tennyson's neighbours was, it may be said, somewhat confined.

WHEN WOMEN REIGN SUPREME.

There is at least one spot on earth, where women have their rights.

WILLING AND FAITHFUL.

A local agent has been engaged in a private city advertised for a boy.

AUTHORITY FROM READING.

"Papa," said the beautiful daughter, "I have read in the Leader."

EYES IN THE BACK OF THEIR HEADS.

To say that a person "has eyes in the back of his head" is a long time.

A TASMANIAN MIRACLE.

PARTIAL PARALYSIS AND WHOLE RESTORATION BY TIRELY CURED.

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS CREATE A SENSATION IN HOBART.

(From the Hobart Clipper.)

Henry Dixon Clarke, a native of Hobart, Tasmania, tells a story of a cure effected by the use of the famous Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, which, in the marvellous details, proves the adage that truth is stranger than fiction.

Twenty years ago he fell from the scaffolding of a building in course of erection in Collins street, Melbourne, and was taken to the hospital in a state of insensibility. He recovered, and was sent home. The next morning he was too stiff to go to work, and resolved on resting awhile. The next day he was sitting in his chair, and feeling feverish and unwell, and was seized with twitching pains in the back whenever he attempted to straighten himself. These increased in violence, and were accompanied with intense pains in the head. He was extending his limbs, and partially that of his left leg, as well as falling a number of times down stairs, and was unable to get up.

The president remarked that he would not like to have to cut all the bones on his hand in 14 days.

Cr. Hansen said as the limbs had been cut down in one place they were cut down in another. Owing to the growth of bristles in Bind's line it was almost impossible to get through with a dry.

The president remarked that nothing was to be done until Cr. Bind's motion was rescinded and till an order-in-council was obtained, and the matter closed.

MR. LOCKWOOD'S POSITION. The point having been raised as to whether the secretary had the necessary legal qualification for the position of engineer to the shire, he put in his hand the appropriate certificate. The shire accepted as sufficient proof of his eligibility for the position.

You could just as well say that he had never doubted Mr. Lockwood's qualification, but he had had some doubts as to whether he should be paid a percentage on the day-labor. On considering the matter further, he decided to refer this letter, through the secretary, to Mr. Gillot.
