THE TESTIMONY OF ESTHER SANDS.

BY ROMA WHITE. CHAPTER XIV. Esther moved forward with something of her old haughty contempt, giving Lewis a quick glance, and then looking down at the notes of the distant bank...

MR CLARSTONE AND HIS FIRST ELECTION.

Mr. Clarstone, after offering as his first election speech a paper printed in his name, was warmly received, and the result was a triumph for the cause.

TRAMPS' HOTELS.

It is reported in England a paper written in scope to the Parisian 'Globe' has been published, which is a very interesting article on the subject of tramps' hotels.

MARRIED IF NOT MATCHED.

It is a remarkable characteristic of the waters in Paris, it is said, that a man who is married is not matched, and a woman who is married is not matched.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE LEADER, SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 1899.

A LOST OPPORTUNITY.

Everybody expected that Lane Middleton's engagement with Miss Cantance would be announced before he went abroad. Certainly he was not rich, but in other respects they were eminently suited to each other, the one being a young man of means, the other a young woman of means. They continued to see a good deal of each other. Their constant meetings in the Park and Row were well known to all matters, surely. Yet, after all, Lane went away without marriage.

TOBACCO ON TRIAL.

The question as to whether tobacco is or is not a healthful article has been discussed in a paper in support of the prohibition. The subject is discussed in "The Young Man," a paper published by Mr. M. J. Bailey, of the firm of Messrs. M. J. Bailey & Co., of the Strand. The paper is a very good one, and is well worth reading. It is a very good one, and is well worth reading. It is a very good one, and is well worth reading.

PHETIC DREAMS.

Mr. H. H. H. recently published a paper in which he discussed the subject of phetisic dreams. He says that he has had many such dreams, and that they are very interesting. He says that he has had many such dreams, and that they are very interesting. He says that he has had many such dreams, and that they are very interesting.
