

SUPPLEMENT TO THE LEADER, SATURDAY, JULY 1, 1899.

POLLY, THE TEA-ROOM GIRL.

A YORSHIRE HEROINE. CHAPTER XIX. THE MARRIAGE OF POLLY THORNTON.

One day, on a morning in April, a crowd of people were gathered in the parlour of the tea-room.

The next day, that drove up to the door, had a very different appearance.

Mr. Park looked at Jack and exclaimed with surprise, "What a fine fellow!"

BURYING ALIVE HORRORS.

It is not my simple work of writing about the horrors of the earth.

Some of the most terrible of these horrors are the cases of people buried alive.

There are many instances of people who have been buried alive.

PRESTON POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, JUNE 20TH.

[Before Messrs Keogh, P.M., Chisholm, and Macleod, J's. P.]

Police v. Richard Cameron and Charles Wright, for assaulting Samuel Bott.

Senior Constable Ashton explained that the assault took place on the 17th inst. They had been unable to serve a summons on Wright but on the night of the 19th Constable Spry had served a summons on the other defendant Cameron, on board the Gabo just as it was departing for West Australia.

Mr. Keogh, P.M.—Then what you intend to do?

Senior Constable Ashton—We will go on.

Samuel Bott, the person assaulted, before giving any evidence, asked for his expenses as a witness.

The P.M.—Kiss the Book.

Bott persisted in asking for his expenses.

The P.M.—If you are not very careful I will commit you to prison.

Bott still continued to mutter about expenses.

The P.M.—Don't let me hear another word from you, sir, till you are away.

Bott then took the oath.

The P.M.—The police take the trouble to prosecute persons for assaulting you and yet you come here with your impertinences.

The witness then described the assault, which last taken place on the 17th inst. at about half-past 11 on the 17th inst. The two defendants, witness and Ashton, stated that they were "dr" and he took them in and assaulted them.

On coming out Cameron and Wright were seized with a paralytic stroke, as a result of which they were unable to get up from the ground.

For the last five years she had suffered from a severe form of rheumatism, and in addition, she had the misfortune to be seized by the influenza, which she had contracted in the month of May.

Charles Friedlander, who resides opposite, corroborated the evidence of Mrs. Ford, and said that he had seen her in the month of May.

THE MUNICIPAL SITUATION.

ADDRESS BY CR. PEARL.

At the Croxton Park Hotel on Wednesday evening, Cr. Pearl delivered an address on "The Municipal Situation." Some 70 or 80 persons were present and gave the speaker good attention during his talk.

bring numbers of people, especially on the vacant lands of the northern wards. It is an appeal to the ratepayers to take a more active interest in their own affairs. Cr. Pearl resumed his seat amidst applause.

Under the head of questions, Cr. Pearl said the council would re-consider the ratepayers' petition. He believed it was possible to get the ratepayers' petition in order without difficulty.

The chairman moved a vote of thanks to Cr. Pearl. He did not think an hour could have been better spent than in listening to the information given by Cr. Pearl.

The motion was carried with acclamation, and a vote of thanks was also passed to Mr. Peary for presiding.

SMOKE CONCERT.

The Northcote Football Club held a smoke concert on Wednesday evening at the Peacock Hotel.

The concert was a success, and the proceeds of the evening were £23,300. The revenue from the concert was £2,700, and the deficit was £20,600.
