READ WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY ABOUT VITADATIO.

66 Ruby parade, Fitzroy.
78 Dorcas street, South Melbourne, 10th May 1899. Mr. S. A. Palmer, agent for Vitadatio Dear Sir,—I have much pleasure in giving my testimony of what Vitadatio has done for me. I was taken ill two years ago last November, with Jaundice. I was then living at Kensington, and the doctor who was attending me discovered that I was suffering from Hydatids. He brought me through that illness, but after twelve months I was again taken ill, suffering terrible agony at times, and a large lump formed in my stomach, which the doctor said was Hydatids again, and that I would have to undergo an operation; but while arrangements were being made I had a bottle of Vitadatio, and after taking one bottle, which made me very ill, I threw up three (3) Gall Stones. I then continued the medicine and passed 14 more. While taking the medicine I also passed Hydatids. I took nineteen (19) bottles of Vitadatio, and now I believe I am thoroughly cured of both Hydatids and Gall Stones, and feel better and stronger than I have done for years. Wishing you every success with your wonderful medicine, I am, yours very gratefully,
Mrs. H. WEBSTER.

P.S.—You are at perfect liberty to make what use you like of this. My cure took place 12 months ago.
Anybody wishing to see the Gall Stones can see them at 45 and 47 Bourke street, Melbourne.

Byrie-street, Geelong, March 15, 1899.

R. CLARKE, Esq., a merchant of Geelong, writes to Mr. S. A. PALMER, General Agent for VITADATIO, of 45 and 47 Bourke street, Melbourne, as follows:— I have suffered for years from that terrible disease, EZZEMA. I was persuaded (after considerable hesitation) by a friend of mine (who had heard of wonderful cures in New Zealand by VITADATIO) to give WEBBER'S VITADATIO a trial. I sent to Melbourne for six large bottles, and, when I had finished them, thought I was cured, and discontinued its use, but the trouble returned, and I thought, "VITADATIO is not a cure for my trouble, anyway." I explained my case to Mr. S. A. Palmer, and he urged me to take more VITADATIO. I made a fresh start, took about another twelve bottles (large size), and am thankful to say I am thoroughly cured, and have been so for fully eight months, and think VITADATIO is a wonderful remedy for blood diseases. I am 70 years of age, and a medicine that will cure a man at my time of life is truly a wonderful discovery. I was speaking to a gentleman friend who had suffered from "Piles" (hemorrhoids) for over forty years. He joyfully told me he was quite cured after taking twelve large bottles of VITADATIO. I wanted him to give you his testimony, but he is unwilling his name should appear, but said I was at liberty to refer any sufferer to him. He is well-known and highly respected in this town. I remain, yours sincerely,
R. CLARKE, J.P.

MEETING OF THE BRICKYARD EMPLOYEES AND POTTERY HANDS.

A SCHOOL OF POTTERY, MOD. ELLING AND DESIGN SUGGESTED.

At the instance of Mr. J. Hunt Cook, M.L.A., a meeting of the brickyard and pottery employees was held on Monday evening in the Mercantile hall, Brunswick. There was a large attendance, Northcote being represented, and Dr. Wales occupied the chair.

NIBBAROOM.

A DUTIFUL INSPECTOR.

The following amusing sketch is from the "Males" column. At the time of which we write the people of the shire of Nibbaroom had such a epidemic caused by microbes floating in the air that they decided to appoint an Inspector of Nibbaroom. The majority of the people lived by using a bad smelling stuff on their land, with which they grew vegetables for the city market some miles away. Indeed, so foul were they of this evil-smelling stuff, that the only place that would do on which to place it was just inside the front gate, which usually was a short distance from the front door.
