THE MISSING CYCLIST.

BY HERBERT DELANNOY.

THE "mid-air" fall of the "Preston" in the High Street, Northcote, was an excellent breeze. There was a strong wind blowing from the west, and the cyclist was riding against it. He was riding on a high road bicycle, and was wearing a dark suit and a cap. He was riding at a steady pace, and was looking towards the camera. He was riding on a road that was very busy, and there were many people walking on the sidewalks. He was riding on a road that was very busy, and there were many people walking on the sidewalks.
