SUPPLEMENT TO THE LEADER, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1900.

Short Story. A Young Man's Strange Adventure.

"Marriage. A gentleman, 22 years of age, with an income of $700, wishes to make the acquaintance of a young lady with a view to matrimony. Address, A. Z. Z. of this paper."

The Sketcher. Little Dolly Dimple.

There was only one chair vacant in the barber's shop the other day. The barber was sitting in it, and a young lady with a lovely face, a sweet smile, and a lovely little dress, was sitting in it. She was looking at the barber with a smile that was as sweet as honey.

Household Hints. Wash Children's Noses and Mouths.

When washing glasses which have been used for food, they should always be first washed in cold water, and then in hot water. This will make it much easier to bring them to a boil, and will also prevent the water from becoming soiled.

Comic Cuttings. Many a man has made a goose of himself with a single quill.

"I don't know if it is a good thing or a bad thing, but I have noticed that many men are making a goose of themselves with a single quill. They are writing letters to their friends and relatives, and they are writing them in such a way that they are completely unintelligible."

EPHING SHIRE NEWS. The annual meeting of the Epping Shire Council.

The annual meeting of the Epping Shire Council was held on Monday evening last. The meeting was attended by a large number of members of the council, and also by a number of the public.

Children Who Saved Hamburg.

Hamburg was besieged. Wolf, the merchant, returned to the city with a message from the children. The children had been hiding in the sewers, and they had been able to escape the city. They had been able to escape because they were so small, and they were able to hide in the sewers.

Value of Turpentine.

Turpentine is the best form of house-keeping. It is a very valuable material, and it is used in many different ways. It is used for cleaning, for painting, and for many other purposes. It is a very useful material, and it is one that every household should have.

Waters for Engaged Girls.

An English paper publishes the following notice: "A young girl has been engaged to a young man. The girl is a very beautiful girl, and the young man is a very rich young man. They are both very happy, and they are looking forward to their wedding day."

Nothing But Cambric.

"You had seen what that man's hair was like. It was a mass of curls, and it was as thick as a forest. It was a very unusual sight, and it was very interesting to see. It was a very beautiful sight, and it was very interesting to see."

Before and After Marriage.

Some time ago a young couple, seeking to be married, were sitting in a room. The young man was looking at the young woman, and he was looking at her with a very serious expression. He was looking at her as if he was looking at a very important person, and he was looking at her as if he was looking at a very important person.

A Woman Was to Blame.

It is surprising how easy men are to be misled by women. A woman can be very clever, and she can be very cunning. She can be very beautiful, and she can be very charming. She can be very kind, and she can be very generous. She can be very good, and she can be very noble. She can be very much to be admired, and she can be very much to be loved.

Disraeli Dressed for Dinner.

As everybody has read, one of Disraeli's great successes was in the field of fashion. He was a very successful man, and he was a very successful man. He was a very successful man, and he was a very successful man. He was a very successful man, and he was a very successful man.

A Coffin Club.

What is a coffin club? It is a club of people who are interested in the study of death. They are interested in the study of death, and they are interested in the study of death. They are interested in the study of death, and they are interested in the study of death.
