EPHRAIM SHIRE COUNCIL.

MORNING, MAY 21.

Present—Crs. McCook, McConach (president), Morgan, McCoy, Boydock, Hansen and Butler.

COACHING.—From Municipal Association, requesting the council to take such steps as it deemed advisable to get the municipal body increased from £100,000 to £200,000.

Mr. Morgan moved that Mr. Gair be recommended to do his best in the direction desired.

Mr. Boydock seconded.—Carried.

From Shire of Grenville, requesting cooperation in having the Railway Lands Acquisition Act amended so as to relieve Shire Councils of the necessity of levying a special rate for the purpose of acquiring land.

Mr. Morgan considered the Act proposed and moved that Mr. Gair, M.L.A., be recommended to support the amendment.

Mr. Butler seconded.—Carried.

From Mr. Morgan, requesting the council to consider the necessity of providing for the next session of Parliament for a special committee to assist in the construction of main roads.—It was decided to ask the member for the district to support this request also.

TRIALS OF A MINER'S WIDOW.

More than ordinary attention has been drawn, particularly in Stawell, to the trials of Mrs. Alice Harris, widow of a late miner, forty-eight, residing in Church Street, Stawell.

"I gathered the following particulars from a recent interview," says a local reporter:—"I am very well known here," said she, "having lived in the town for twenty-eight years."

Mr. Hansen moved that if the contractor have any grievance in having the rails condemned they write to the council and same will be dealt with at next meeting.

Mr. Butler seconded.

Mr. Boydock said he must support the engineer in having the contract carried out according to specifications.

Mr. McCoy said it was quite right that any inferior staff should be condemned. If it was not there would be a lot of bother with the owners.

The motion was carried.

The engineer having reported that the contractor for maintenance metal were not working on the motion of Crs. Morgan and Hansen to enforce penalties if the contractor is not completed in a fortnight's time.

Regarding Glen Burnie road bridge Cr. Butler criticised the engineer for not having a special report on the material.

Mr. Hansen said it was those whom he employed to get the timber in the first place who caused the needless expense.

Mr. Boydock said he was not prepared to support the engineer's recommendation that the contractor should be fined.

Mr. Hansen moved that the contractor be fined £100 for not completing the bridge in a fortnight's time.

Mr. Boydock seconded.
