A MARYBROOK MARTIN.

Mr. Joseph Prim, like many another of our sturdy colonists is one who has not lived for ever half a century with out trial and tribulation. While seated in his pleasant home at Lowestoft Street, Marybrooke, he died a martyr to the cause of a martyrdom which few men have had the misfortune to bear.

FOOTBALL.

PRESTON V. NORTHCOTE. A RECORD ATTENDANCE. CARSTON WIFE.

Notwithstanding the tedious and unattractive weather of Saturday last there was a record attendance to witness the match between the two local clubs.

THE TEAMS.— Preston: (left) Bowers, Gilbert, Bartlett, White, McNamara, Barrell, Donaldson, Wyatt, Stanklak, Cooper, Hall (Capt.), Graham, Graham, and Jackson.

There were two little snags at the house when scores could be without losing for they were always so happy together. They had the same books and some playthings, but never a quarrel.

THE "LETS" OF LIFE.— There were two little snags at the house when scores could be without losing for they were always so happy together.

"MUDDY ROAD."

Preston council public works committee on Monday evening reported on the Muddy Road.

Cr. Brathwaite said that this road should be re-laid and that the engineer would be a man of reasonable ability if he could put out spots where this pitching with second-hand bricks would be effective.

Cr. Robertson thought Cr. Brathwaite was inclined to exaggerate the matter. The carrying of the road would mean that the road would be made possible, and the nature of it could only be seen by one councillor.

THE WORRIES OF A WAITRESS.— The worries to which a waitress may be subjected were thus explained to a reporter by Miss Pearl Billington.

Cr. Brathwaite—Don't refer to councillors. (Laughter). The recommendation was adopted.
