CHAPTER XV. (Continued).

That same morning, as Louis Dabner sat on his seat in the office, he was suddenly startled by finding a letter slipped under the door.

"Yes, I am here in Paris, you didn't mean that your father should know whether his son had departed, did you?"

"Well, what else?"
"About your father you had obtained a very lucrative position, being hand-picked by the directors of the bank."

"You do mean to imply that you followed your father's footsteps?"
"Of course, my dear Louis, I would suppose you would be very disagreeable to your father, but I did expect that you would be very agreeable to him."

"I will not work for you if you will not work for me."
"Dear Louis, I am sure you will not regret that you are now in Paris."

"I am sure you will not regret that you are now in Paris."
"Dear Louis, I am sure you will not regret that you are now in Paris."

"I am sure you will not regret that you are now in Paris."

Family's Fateful Trials.

The fateful and almost unparallelled trials of the family of the late Mr. C. W. Wainwright, which commenced in the month of August, 1901, and continued through the winter of 1902, are now being reviewed in the columns of the Leader.

Local Government.

WOMEN'S HOSPITAL FUND.
I particularly regret the attendance of Ladies and Gentlemen at a MEETING of the Women's Hospital Fund, held at the Town Hall, Northcote, on TUESDAY, the 11th inst., at 8 p.m., for the purpose of arranging for the raising of a sum of money for the liquidation of the debt due on the above institution and for the maintenance of the excellent service rendered to those suffering and in need.

Workmen's Homes at Northcote.

On Thursday afternoon, Mr. Dugan, Minister of Labor, visited Northcote, and inspected the proposed Workmen's Homes at Northcote, which the Government have purchased, subject to the approval of Parliament, for the purpose of establishing workmen's homes. The land is situated at the extreme northern boundary of Northcote, and runs from High-street to the main thoroughfare of the town in an easterly direction, comprising about 240 acres, and is very fertile, being one of the best in the district, and a quarter of a mile wide.

Northcote Town Council.

Monday, 10th February.

Present—Crs. Plant (Mayor), Yeomans, Hastings, Mitchell, Parsons, Edwards, Veale, Thompson, Marks, Mitchell, Dennis, Cundy and Jamison.

From Town of Williamstown 200 pounds grant of £200 to supplement the cost of the Fire Brigades Board for expenses of a visit of information to Europe and America.

Cr. Yeomans remarked that when an important matter like this came before the Council, it was the duty of the representative (Mr. Keeble) should certainly make it his business to inform the Council of it. He had told another council that he had voted against it, but if he had not he would have voted for it.

Cr. Smith moved that Mr. Keeble be invited out to give an explanation.

Cr. Yeomans seconded.

Cr. Parsons hoped and believed they would get good value for the expenditure on Mr. Stain's visit. In a city like this they might be in possession of all the information as to how to deal with fires.

Cr. Yeomans said the illustrated pamphlet which came to the Council every week would give all the necessary information which they should be able to get.

He understood there was a more on foot to get an undertaking from Mr. Stain that he was not like Mr. Matheson, but go away to get another bill. It was a strange thing that he had wanted to go away at this particular time when there was something special on at home.

Perhaps he wanted to see the Mayor (Langhorne). The Board's expenditure for a year was something like £122,000, and for work which might very well be done for £25,000.

Cr. Veale—I never was. The motion was carried. Crs. Jamison and Marks against.

FROM WILLIAM KEES. From William Keeble, representative on the Fire Board, stating that the alarm plan would be fixed as near as possible to the place indicated by the Council as soon as possible.

THAT THEIR MARKET DAY. From John H. T. Gully, stating that a deputation to the Mayor of Melbourne against a third market day would take place between the 10th and 15th, and which day would be decided by Crs. Parsons and Thompson.

FROM CR. YEOMANS. From Cr. Yeomans stating that he was not asking to be favored with the information which was being given to the Council, but that he decided to request them to reconsider their decision to have a third market.

Cr. Thompson said that since their previous decision he had conversed with many councillors and was more convinced than ever that a third market day would be best if it were completely attended to third market day.

Cr. Yeomans thought it only fair that they should give the Cr. Council their information they asked for and had any to give.

Cr. Thompson—All that could be given by the Council is the information carried.

THE NATIONAL PARK. The Preston, Collingwood, Fitzroy and Hilda committees are meeting today and they had decided to do so on the 10th.

THE BENCHING OF THE VALLEY. The Bench of Kow was asking that two delegates be appointed to attend a deputation to the Mayor of Melbourne to ask for a grant of money to plant the River Yarra at various points as far as Heidelberg, the River and Cr. Yeomans were appointed to attend.

THE CHURCH'S PATRONAGE. The Preston division (C.S.T.) were asking for the patronage of the 10th in their anniversary concert on the 10th.

A motion was submitted that the request be complied with.

Cr. Jamison wanted to know what was the result of granting the committee's patronage when it was not granted. A recent concert for charity, to which the mayor was in the chair, but there was not another councillor present. Therefore what was it worth.

Cr. Yeomans had stamps it, that's all. (Laughter).

SOUTH WARD WATERPANS AND TREE PLANTING. John H. Dowdle, as secretary Northcote South Waterpans, wrote by direction, suggesting the advisability of the Council taking steps to formulate a general scheme of tree planting throughout the town.

It was decided to consider the letter with clause 4 of the public works committee's report.

STAGNANT WATER. L. J. Myers Comptroller Board of Advice were forwarding complaint from Mr. E. C. Bishop, head teacher, Central School, re the stagnant water between the school and the present water main.

The Town Clerk said that plans for the construction of these channels had been approved and it was only a matter of a short time when the work would be commenced.

Cr. Mitchell declared there was very little fault to be found. There was only one bad right-of-way, and it was included in the next batch to be constructed.

Cr. J. Dunn, Mitchell street, wrote asking that the drainage arrangements in front of his premises be improved. Referred to surveyor for attention.

WATER FOR GARDEN STREET.

Cr. Dymally moved asking the Council to take steps to have the water main extended to the front of the garden street.

Cr. Yeomans said that the Council had no money to do this.

Cr. Dymally said that the Council should consider the matter.

Cr. Mitchell said that the Council should consider the matter.
