THE COUNCIL MADE ARRANGEMENTS

and held their first meeting. They were a very large number and it was a pity they did not get a touch of the horse-epidemic.

It moved that consideration of the petition stand over till next meeting.

Cr. Butler moved that the petition be considered "urgently" and dealt with as a day.

Cr. Hansen said there was a charge against him that he had misled the council. Several residents had told him they wanted it and seeing the other side he took their word for it that they were in favor of it also. It was a disgrace for any one to say he had misled the council.

The president—That language is hardly in order.

Cr. Hansen said he would withdraw from the council if the house applied for by Mr. Bowen be granted.

An amendment by Cr. Butler and Morgan to the effect that the health officer again visit the premises and say whether he would now recommend that the license be granted was carried.

From Shire of Bradfield's proposals expressing their willingness to pay 200 towards the cost of the Merri Creek bridge at Campbellfield, and hoping the work would be proceeded with as soon as possible.

Cr. McCormack moved that application be made to the Preston council to contribute their share of the cost of the repairs. Cr. Butler seconded. Carried.

From W. McDonnell, applying for the use of the hall for quack assemblies during the winter months.

Cr. Butler moved that the application be granted, the charge to be £1 a night, a deposit of £1 to be paid.

In reply to Cr. McCormack the president said the caretaker's charge for lighting, via, 75d, was extra.

Cr. Morgan moved that the charge for entertainments other than charitable be £1 a night, the caretaker to be reimbursed for charges out of name by Mr. Fox, as he was away from home, but he would arrange to reimburse Mr. Fox as soon as possible.

Cr. Hansen moved that the engineer, Mr. McEwen, be permitted to use the day room to clean out the short drain.

Seconded by the president and carried.

2. Inspector of dairies. Cr. Butler moved that the engineer, Mr. McEwen, be permitted to use the day room to clean out the short drain.

Seconded by the president and carried.

3. Inspector of dairies. Cr. Butler moved that the engineer, Mr. McEwen, be permitted to use the day room to clean out the short drain.

Seconded by the president and carried.

13. Inspector of dairies. Cr. Butler moved that the engineer, Mr. McEwen, be permitted to use the day room to clean out the short drain.

Seconded by the president and carried.

FINANCE.

The treasurer (Mr. Day) reported that the receipts for the month had been £28 10s and the Dr. Balance was £41 4d.

Cr. Butler moved that the accounts for the month, except an amount of £10 10s in payment to Mr. Yax for a night-stand, be passed for payment.

Cr. Hansen seconded.

Cr. McCormack moved and Cr. McCoy seconded that all accounts be passed.—Carried.

Cr. Butler—Where is the money to come from?

The president—I don't know, but I suppose we'll have to make some provision for it.

ORDINARY BUSINESS. Cr. Hansen moved that the engineer, Mr. McEwen, be permitted to use the day room to clean out the short drain.

Seconded by the president and carried.
