NORTHCOTE POLICE COURT. MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2ND.

[Before Mr. Cole, P.M., and Messrs McIntosh and Hastings, J.P.'s.] AN OFFENSIVE NEIGHBOURHOOD. Six youths named Chas. Hodder, Ernest Wilson, Geo. Bagley, George Bignell, Jack Roberts and George Hill were charged with behaving in an offensive manner in a public place.

Mr. R. T. Morgan appeared for Bignell and Mr. J. W. Robertson for the other defendants. The council and John Dixon, caretaker of the New Northcote Brick Company's plant, gave evidence as to finding the defendants on the property on Sunday, 20th inst. They had gained entrance to the building by prying open a trap-door over the fire-escape of the engine. Witness Council said that when he entered the building it was a long time before he could see the defendants. At last he discovered them "stowed away close to the roof." Both witnesses said that the boys behaved in an offensive manner, but admitted no damage was done, and Council said the building was 200 feet away from the roadway in Dennis street, while Bignell estimated the distance at 100 yards. Council went to the police leaving Bignell to attend the court.
