PARS FROM PUNCH.

It is stated that Mr. Robinson (the Buffalo Bill of the Northern Territory) has sold Melville Island in London, and that a large party of Englishmen sportsmen will shortly be coming out for a year or two of big game shooting.

There was not more than four thousand and five in all Australia, and yet they secure 500 per cent. more public positions and more power (pro rata) than any other distinct community.

Our local aristocracy are beginning to draw the social cord very tight around themselves. Very soon anything without a title will not be admissible within the cordons of Australia.

It is said Lord Tennyson better to be a Duke-Governor-General than the real thing. Whilst only Acting-Governor he drew at the rate of £4000 per annum from South Australia.

In Collins-Street there are nine hotels and about nineteen clubs. Why are the clubs not compelled to pay a license fee and why are they not compelled to submit balance-sheets to their members?

The son of the great "Eldon," who once stated in Melbourne that about the time of the early discovery of gold he went to bed one night in a poor man's house and woke up "disgracefully rich."

Complete our politician with some bitterness—"A C.M.G.'s ship isn't worth a cent, that's my opinion, and I was never so rich as when I received the medals of congratulation on receiving my C.M.G. title, and found they were 'collected,' and I had to pay £5 on them."

Continued. I had scarcely laid the first tier of the masonry when I discovered that the use of mortar was not to be used in a great measure.

It was now midnight, and my lamp was drawing to a close. I had completed the eighth, ninth and the tenth tiers.

"The Amontillado!" I said. "But let not getting late. Will not they be awaiting us at the palace, the King, the Queen, and the people?"

"Fortunato!" I called again. "Fortunato!" I called again. "I thrust a torch through the remaining aperture and it fell with a rattling sound on the floor."

"No, of course not, I didn't want to bury him, but if you happened to find any that had been left here by persons buying new ones, you know I should regard them as stolen goods."

"What number are they?" "Two—small '2's at that. And here is one brown slipper—'18, mine's '16." "But '15 is an unlucky number," he said anxiously.

"I see," said the clerk, and he grazed down after her retreating form, muttering in an emphatic monotone: "And the family shoe runs from 99 to 99. '15—Boston Gazette."

FACTS ABOUT THE WORLD'S FAIR, ST. LOUIS, U.S.A., 1904.

The Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis, U.S.A., in 1904, will commemorate the centennial of the purchase of the great Louisiana Territory by the United States from France.

The price paid for the Louisiana Territory was 15,000,000 dollars, and the land acquired was about one million square miles, more than doubling the size of the United States at that time.

Twenty-three States and Territories have made appropriations for the next to Missouri, being the Illinois appropriation of 250,000 dollars.

As a Tonic Appetiser and Blood Purifier it is unrivalled. It is the only known teetotal drink that is a substitute for alcohol, and the only one that will benefit the drinker.

FOR THE BABY'S SAKE

Story of a Mother's Forgiveness. "I will never marry him never, never."

Another chapter. "I give you a week to think."

She pointed to the sleeping babe in her arms. "It is 'L' I'll show you."

It was the morning of the 17th. "The remarkable episode recorded in the history of 'The Tombs'."

WIT AND HUMOUR

NOT GOING TO BE ANY. "Do you think my daughter would go with you, sir, and you wish to go?"

A MILLINER'S TROUBLES. "They are many, but the complaints about purchases made the day before are most numerous."

Mrs. MARY ANN WON. "Only thing, Mrs. Grogan, that great disappointment has been the fact that she has paralytic."

BROWN'S MISTAKE. "Brown was feeling rather sad when he wrote one morning. He stretched out his hand for the lamp."

Out of Order. "Not long since in a certain village in Scotland, a meeting was summoned for the purpose of erecting a bridge."

AN ONLY IN THE PALL. "An Irish soldier was crossing the barbed wire with a pall in his hand."

NOT STARTING YET. "Father, my son, do you know that most of the rich men of your town began their lives as poor boys?"

DISLIKED ROOTING. "What's the matter with you?" asked his wife. "I'm rooting for you."

AN APPELLING ALPHABET

English is, we know, the most difficult language to learn. It is so because it is so full of words that begin with the same letter."

SHORT SIGHT. "To prevent short-sightedness, it is well to use the eyes as much as possible every day."

THE EGG. "It is remarkable that a place in the world exists where the eggs are laid by the birds in the winter."

BE GOOD TO YOURSELF. "Think deliberately of the house you live in. Make up your mind firmly not to abuse it."

ALWAYS BE CIVIL. "Who can estimate the value of civility? It costs little to those who show it and is worth much to those who receive it."

WOUNDED HIS DIGNITY. "In his lively book, 'Across Many Seas,' Mr. Kinsler tells an amusing anecdote of the Great Eastern."

MOST DRESSING OBJECTS. "A pretty young married woman said to her husband the other day. 'I'm wearing such an old-fashioned white dress.'"

OLD-FASHIONED WIVES. "A pretty young married woman said to her husband the other day. 'I'm wearing such an old-fashioned white dress.'"

A new poet has just dived upon the Australian horizon. She is a disciple of Whitman, evidently, and a Victorian paper marks her advent with some ecstasy.

My mind, sensitive liver roasts gently with yellow bile in sweet content. My calm, beautiful, somewhat stony sings, as I walk, a song of peace.

One of a series of temperance meetings arranged by the Northcote Temperance Society, will be held at the Congregational Church, Prince of Wales' Park, on Monday evening, Feb. 2nd, 1903.

There are few complaints that create less sympathy than nervousness. Yet the disorder is a very distressing one and at times the fore-runner of more dangerous and serious maladies.

Not so good as the Sanny brand, but good enough, is one from Russia. The latest number of the London Herald states that the Grand Duke Paul, in a public speech, has been expelled from the Court for a flagrant outrage.

Disenters cause the death of more people than small pox or yellow fever combined. In only 5 months, 100,000 have died in a battle. It requires prompt and effective treatment.
