

Told in the Gloom.

She glanced up at a supper with her pretty face... "Yes, dear," said Isabel, "I will do it for you."

WOMAN'S WORLD.

TRIFLES THAT MAKE PERFECT. The chief difference between a well-dressed and a badly-dressed woman is that the former is clean.

AGRICULTURE.

THE WOOL-GROWER'S PROBLEM. The wool-grower's problem is not only one of the most important, but also one of the most interesting.

"Ready for Duty."

During the Indian Mutiny, "said that the British soldiers were never so brave and so true as they were then.

The Ladies' Column.

LOCKWOOD often sees the wonderful beauty of the world in the eyes of a woman who is truly a lady.

WOMAN'S GREATEST ATTRACTION.

Mr. Brathwaite objects generally and says that the woman who is truly a lady is not only beautiful, but also intelligent.

ECZEMA FOR TWO YEARS.

ZAM-BUK EFFECTIVE WHERE MANY TREATMENTS FAIL. "I have been suffering from eczema for two years, and have tried every treatment known to man."

ORIENTAL PROVERBS.

We have not a monopoly of wisdom in the East. The Chinese proverb says that a man who is truly a gentleman is not only rich, but also kind.

A FRACTIOUS JOKE.

Here is a story of a man who was so fractious that he was called a "fractious" man.

TOO CONSCIENTIOUS.

No long ago a lady, calling on an elderly gentleman, asked him to lend her a pair of shoes.

GIVING HIM A HINT.

They were sitting on a bench in a park, and the man was giving the woman a hint.

WHERE IS HOME?

Home is where affection binds, and where the heart is true.

A DESIRABLE CHARACTERISTIC.

It is a young girl's characteristic to be kind and gentle, and to have a good heart.

MARKING AND KEEPING FRIENDS.

Marking friends is easy for the girl who is truly a lady, and who has a good heart.

CONSENTMENT.

It is believed in Norway that women are more intelligent than men, and that they are more capable.

A LADY.

A lady is not only beautiful, but also intelligent, and she is always ready to help others.
