LOCALISMS. One of the chief activities with many of us is to be satisfied with what we have.

HOUSE-BREAKERS SURPRISED. A LADY GIVES CHASE. Residents of the west ward, Northcote, were much surprised by the intrusion of a party of burglars.

THE FOWL STEALS. Sergeant Salt is doing his very utmost to keep the fowls from the garden.

A Monaganian's Birthday Reception. An evening of unusual interest took place at the residence of Mrs. G. M. G. on Saturday last.

CHURCH NEWS. The Rev. Mr. G. M. G. will officiate at the services at the Wesleyan Church on Sunday next.

George Wardrop, TAILOR, HATTER, and MEN'S MERCER, 109 BOURKE STREET, MELBOURNE.

NORTHCOTE PUBLIC LIBRARY. THE PROPOSED NEW BUILDING. COUNCIL WILL PROVIDE £200. CONDITIONAL ON THE GOVERNMENT GIVING £1 FOR £1.

A WAYWARD WIFE. By Helen Hicks. "Oh my darling husband, and I have been so happy together since we were married."

THE HOME. "What is Johnson's business?" "I think he is a bookmaker."

WIT AND HUMOUR. "I have just had a letter from my mother. She says she is going to the States."

DON'T DEEPEN THE WRINKLES. "What is Johnson's business?" "I think he is a bookmaker."

INS! INS! A woman is never too old to marry. "I have just had a letter from my mother. She says she is going to the States."

THE BRAVEST BATTLES. The bravest battles that ever were fought were those of the mind.

THE MAN NOT TO MARRY. Girls are often advised to marry. We are advised to marry for the sake of the man.

FACT. Does it come from heat or brain? The question which stands at the head of the list of the most important questions of the day.

TO CLEAN WATER BOTTLES. Dissolve a piece of common soda in a quart of water.

A WEIRD EXPERIENCE. An acquaintance of a well known lady in the city has written to me.

DON'TS FOR BOYS. Don't think it "brilliant" to be a "dandy" or to be a "fashionable" man.

A RESTFUL HOLIDAY. All experience shows that to be really happy a holiday must be a holiday of the mind.

THE LATE MR. GEORGE VALENTINE. TRIBUTE FROM BENCH, BAR AND POLICE. Mr. George Valentine was a man of high character and high ability.

OH! FOR A DOWRY. Sir—In answer to the question of a friend, I would say that a dowry is a thing of the past.

CHURCH NEWS. The Rev. Mr. G. M. G. will officiate at the services at the Wesleyan Church on Sunday next.

FOR PEARLS, BY F. & H. HINTON.

A Tale of the Early Days. [All Rights Reserved.] CHAPTER XVII.—Continued.

For some time after this little party... the doctor, however, had not been able to speak to her.

"Well, when you have done your duty... you will be young and comely, and you will be able to do your duty."

"In a few days, perhaps, he said... I will be young and comely, and you will be able to do your duty."

"I will be young and comely, and you will be able to do your duty... I will be young and comely, and you will be able to do your duty."

"I will be young and comely, and you will be able to do your duty... I will be young and comely, and you will be able to do your duty."

AGRICULTURE.

THE HARBORS. A South Australian farmer gives the following account of a sheep-stealing party.

THE LOSS FROM A MILKER. The following pertinent note from the "Agricultural Gazette" is of interest to all dairymen.

TO THE ENERGETIC. The Barking wharf was the scene of a recent robbery, and the loss was considerable.

BY NATURE'S SERVANTS. Travellers who have journeyed in all parts of the world will be interested to read the following account of a sheep-stealing party.

AT A SUPPER PARTY. Some years ago a well-known Birmingham merchant was dining at a restaurant.

THE POWER OF GOD-NATURE. Sometimes, on account of ill-health, a man is unable to do his duty.
