

THE TEMPTATION OF SAMUEL BURGE.

By W. W. Jacobs.

Mr. Higgs, Jeweller, sat in the small parlour behind his shop, gazing lazily at a superlative clock which had been brought in from London...

THE MUSHROOMS.

Tootieboom's Latest Adventure, Though a Very Early One.

"Mushrooms, Monday, eleven o'clock," Tootieboom, Thursday, one-and-three-quarters, Tuesday, two-and-three-quarters...

MEDICAL MEMO.

Hardening of the Arteries.

There comes a time in the lives of many persons when, after a period of vigor and perhaps very gradual loss of health and strength, a physician makes his examination and utters the words "arteriosclerosis," as expressing the condition he finds.

DOMESTIC TIPS-BITS.

FATHER OF THE CINEMA.

Considerable discussion has been going on for some time past as to who originated the cinema. Many claimants to the distinction have been advanced, but after careful investigation it would appear that the honor really belongs to an Englishman, Edward Muybridge...

A GRADUATED SCALE.

Discipline in the German Army applied to the rank of the enlisted soldier with an exactness which is illustrated by the following passage from a book by A. R. Wylie, entitled "The German Soldier."

"He stands at attention in a long line, his hands on his hips, his feet together, his eyes fixed straight forward. He is rigid, like a statue...

SELECTED RECIPES.

Veal Fritters.

One cupful of minced veal, one cupful of milk, two eggs, salt, pepper, starch, and a little flour. Beat the milk lightly. Break the bread in the milk, beat thoroughly with a fork. Stir in the veal, eggs, salt, pepper, and starch. Drop by spoonfuls like pan-cakes, and fry in hot dripping or equal parts of butter and lard.

