THE LEADER

Amusing Incidents.

W. P. Knowledge.

It was a most amusing incident that occurred at the meeting of the Victoria Automobile Club. The speaker, Mr. W. P. Knowledge, was speaking of the value of a car. He said that a car was not only a means of transport, but a source of pleasure and comfort. He then related a story of a man who had bought a car and had spent a great deal of money on it. He had been told that it was a good car, but when he bought it, he found that it was a very poor one. He had to spend a great deal of money on repairs and had to give it up. This was a most amusing incident, and it was well received by the audience.

ALWAYS A SOMETHING

There is always something new and interesting to be found in the world. It is not always the big things that catch our attention, but the small things that make us think. A little incident, a little story, can sometimes tell us more than a big event. It is these small things that make life so interesting and so full of surprises.

HIS MEXICAN WIFE. By Arthur Applin. Author of "The Crown of Gold". Published by Arrangement with Ward, Lock and Co. Ltd., London and Melbourne.

THE TRUTH ABOUT VENUS. By Arnold Galloway. Venus was the widow of her husband, and she was a widow of her husband, and she was a widow of her husband.

MY ACCOUNT-BOOK. By Ashley Storme. As the anniversary of my birthday approached with its usual list of obligations, I felt that I had better get down to work.

WHEN WILL THE WAR END? By "Will Not Let Another Year". Some further writing comes to me from the pen of the author of "The War and the People".

CHARACTER FROM THE EYE. How are the shifting, advent eyes that always look away from me? They seem to be looking at me, but they are not.

ANOTHER EDITORIAL. We understand that several of our readers have been disappointed in not getting a copy of our paper.

WOMEN IN THE FIRING LINE. A large number of women are engaged in the work of the war, and they are doing it with courage and determination.

HOW JAPS HARVEST WHEAT. They pull it up by the roots. As a result of the war, the Japanese have been forced to harvest wheat in a different way.

THE LEADER. A woman like the leader fears the strange story of the "White Lady".

From Various Sources.

Every man has his troubles—and most of them wear skirts. The Exquisite Queens to be held at the Exhibition Building was nearly framed on lines which promised magnificent possibilities, but a special meeting decided against a motion that the queen should have a suitable retinue characteristic of her "kingdom."

After living on bread and cheese and kisses in a cottage for a few weeks the young married couple begin to economize by cutting out the kisses. If a private individual could only treat his friends with the same loving kindness that the Allies have shown, the world would be a different place.

no wars calling swains half-way across the world. So Darby gave himself up for good and all when he longed for engagement ring. Now all things are liable to change. They say there are beautiful girls as well as bullets in France.

Uncle Sham. By James Douglas. I have been reading with great gusto Mr. Roosevelt's new book, "Fear God and Take Your Own Part." It is a grand old book, and I cannot help but feel that it is a masterpiece of the human mind.

Female Shell Hands. SOME MUNITION SLANG. Great events in history bring a new vocabulary to a language (says a writer in the "Daily Mail"). It is a new vocabulary, I am what is called a "female shell hand."

Ladies' Letter. The latest idea in New York is a woman's hotel. Its floors and walls are decorated with flowers and greenery. The idea is to give women a place where they can relax and enjoy themselves.

Story of a Sniper. WORKED IN A WILLOW TREE. HOW HE WENT TO HIS END. A good sportsman serving in Flanders or France, who cannot tell the tale of his own exploits, has sent me the following perfectly true account of a sniper's fate.

Dogs of War. HAVE GAINED MUCH EFFICIENCY IN FRANCE. Among the unexpected things that have caused general surprise in France is the wonderful success reached in the special training of dogs for different services in the army.
