Kaiser's Doom.

PLANS OF ESCAPE. FEARS REVOLUTION. AN ISLAND STRONGHOLD.

The inevitable deposition of the Kaiser and the precautions he has taken to ensure his personal safety in view of a popular revolution...

The writer, until the outbreak of war, was a personal friend of the Kaiser, and owing to his acquaintance with the Kaiser's intimates...

The German people are heartily in favor of his speedy termination, not that they are in any way hostile to the Kaiser...

What to do in this awkward predicament is the question. Looking around him, the Kaiser is prompted to make an end to the boat...

However, luck was with those who ventured, as it so often is. The trawler proved to be only a harmless fishing craft...

Moreover, fear of the State has mobilized all specie, all foreign, domestic, industrial, and commercial securities...

That means bankruptcy, repudiation of the domestic war debt, if not of the entire internal national debt...

Heckscher considers the danger so great that he suggests the 25,000 men now in the field be kept in vast concentration camps...

The Fitter's Mate.

ANOTHER NEW WAR TYPE.

"Daily Mail."

In many workshops the fitter's "mate" or assistant is being replaced by tools and machinery...

As I crossed the room she looked up with a smile and said: "Are you the new fitter?" she asked eagerly...

"Do you like the work?" I asked her. "The twenty-five shillings a week helps to keep things going while the men are away," she answered evenly...

"Oh, not at all," she replied. She was giving valuable assistance to her fitter in a number of ways—handling saws, planers, and other tools...

With the practice of true femininity she has friend professedly immediately to "do up" when he has finished the work...

WOMAN.

O woman, in our hours of ease, Thou art not such an awful being, When ink and anguish swirl in clouds, A veritable kosmos thou!

When we have used up all the rest of subjects for a quip or jest, We're always sure to make a hit if lovely woman spurn us not.

A woman's club, a woman's hat, A woman's dress, a woman's gait, A woman's nose, a woman's tears, A woman's vote, a woman's years.

Whatever thing we please or vex, The fair, inconsequence, we'll see, Will make a target, every line, At which to aim a random rhyme.
