Suit News
of Great Importance

"The scarcity of suitings through the cutting off of British supplies and the inadequate supply from Australian sources has already caused a big advance in the cost of men's wear." (See Melbourne "Argus" 22.5.18)
This startling news is, unfortunately, only too true, but as our supplies were bought before this rise took place, you can still procure a suit at the old rate—tailored to your measure and embodying the latest fashion in the perfection of fit and the highest degree in workmanship.
If you buy now, you will be buying a suit which is not only a good one, but a smart one, and one which will cost you less than the price we offer to-day.

BASEBALL.

Good batting in the first three innings put Northcote in a safe position against Y.M.C.A. in the third innings with the bugs full, J. Thomson got in a solid three batter to right field, which put the game beyond doubt. In order to give Beckfield a rest for the final match, P. Gilford filled the pitcher's box, and did remarkably well by keeping the Y.M.C.A. down to 1 run. Brown, Vezon, and Crawley did well with the bat, and W. Thomson at first, and G.
Gilford catching, played their positions accurately.

Northcote: 1-1, 2-1, 1-0, 1-0.
Y.M.C.A.: 0-1, 0-0, 0-0, 1-1.
Today Northcote play Flemington at
