Concerning Winter Heating
The Passing of the Household Drudge.

DOMESTIC Labour-Saving Appliances should be in every home. Gas, as a fuel, has proved its superiority over Wood and Coal by means of the Gas Cooking Stove and Gas Iron, and ladies who so strongly object to Winter fire, causing smoke, dust, ash, cleaning of grates, &c., have only to experience one Winter with Gas Fires to convince them that they have too long put up with the drudgery and inconvenience of other fires.
