PRESTON ROWING CLUB.

The 5th annual meeting of the above was held in the Reservoir hall on Tuesday, 16th September. The report showed a good year, the receipts amounting to £245/4/6, a balance of £31/10 was left. The assets over liabilities amount to £208/11/10. The club has a membership of 60. The retiring president, Mr. J. P. Kellan, who has held the position since the inception of the club, was re-elected. The remaining officers were filled as follows:—Patrons, Messrs Sydney Arnold, Beat, L. Irwin, life members, Messrs J. G. Throver, C. J. Marshall, and F. Hannaford; vice-presidents, Messrs W. Coleman, C. Marshall, and G. C. J. Throver; Sorby, H. P. Zwar, and Cr. C. Crispie; club captain, Mr. H. Barrett; vice-captain, Mr. B. Cox; committee, Messrs W. Johnson, G. Hyatt, E. Gibson, E. Eginton, F. Mathison, D. McLeod, A. Mason; treasurer, Mr. F. Hannaford; hon. secretary, Mr. A. Freeman; auditors, Messrs W. Johnson and F. Mathison; club coaches, Messrs Rose, G. Williams, and H. Oxlande.

Widening Oakover Road.

At the meeting of the Preston Council on Monday evening a letter was received from the M. and M. Tramways Board re council's letter asking Board to set back the fence line a distance of 17 feet on the south side of Oakover road, stating that eventually the whole area of land held by the Board would be required for tramway purposes, although it may not be necessary to erect any permanent structures within 17 feet of the boundary for some years. All fence posts were now in position. Cr. Jones moved that the Tramways Board be asked to receive a deputation from the council, the chairman of the Town Planning Commission, and the chairman of the Tramways Association to be invited to be present. The council was trying to widen its streets, and a public body made a move to dictate to the council. The posts were not in place until the council application to have the fence set back 17 feet. A private owner had agreed to make the concession, and the Tramways Board should also be prepared to make it. Cr. McPherson seconded.—Carried.

Madady's Corner.

BY MOTHER MEG.
THE POPULARITY OF PLEATS. Everything is to be pleated this season, and it is more the exception than the rule to find these absent in one form or another. In some cases the pleats are so fine, they have positively to be looked for, but they are there all right—you are not fashionable without them. Every kind of material seems to submit to this treatment of pleats, from cheap cottons upwards. In fact, without the aid of these expanding pleats, many of the slim dresses now worn would be impossible to move in. Georgette and crepe de chine frocks, pleated or pin-tucked from neck to hem, back and front, are now girdle of the material low down on this type of dress, and it is finished artistically, too.

Concert at South Preston.

Last Saturday evening a concert was given by the Port Melbourne Girls' Club in the South Preston Methodist Church Hall, under the auspices of the refreshment committee. It was most unfortunate that the event clashed with three other fixtures, held in connection with the patrons to these concerts, which was solely responsible for the small attendance, as the efforts of Miss Sinden, in promoting the concert, were certainly deserving of a full house. Nevertheless, the girls entered upon their work with great enthusiasm, and are to be complimented for providing such an enjoyable programme which was greatly appreciated by those present. One of the features included various presents for the audience which, during the singing of the hymns, they threw out to their hearers. It was rather amusing to see a most pitiful-looking man, unfortunately, did not catch it. This gift was followed by a hard landing. All the items were heartily rendered.

WHY SLIT SKIRTS CAME IN.

The "Blues" have one achievement to their credit they have affected the fashion of the skirt. The cut of slim silhouette meant a tight skirt and consequently short steps. But in the Blues, dancers have to take long gliding steps, if the skirt is short, it is not a strong, if limited, popularity, it has been found necessary to introduce the skirt with the slit side. This new fashion has spread, and walking skirts are now invariably not as they seem, having either a lengthy slash at one or both sides, or containing concealed pleats.

YOUR MONOGRAM.

Talking of wearing one's heart on one's sleeve, it is all very well to wear one's monogram on blouse or jumper, or what not, but on one's instep does seem rather a strange spot. Still, if you like it, and after all, it's always of identification in case of an accident.

KEEP YOUR FURS CLEAN.

A well-known furrier says that moths are particularly attracted to dirty furs, so it is as well to clean them after winter use. Hot bran will do the trick nicely for all but white furs, though of course, it is best to send them to an expert if one can afford it. The fond delusion cherished by some of us, that lavender keeps moths away, is totally incorrect, he says. Moths enjoy lavender, but hate evil smelling naphthalin.

SAVE THE SKINS.

When fruit and vegetables are peeled, it is seldom that any use is made of the skins, and in reality they serve a variety of purposes, and should not be wasted. Potato peelings are very useful for getting the stains off knives, in half the time taken by a knife-brush. Rub the blade a few times with the peel, and the stain is gone. If you keep fowls they will appreciate boiled potato skins in the evening mash. Banana skins are excellent for polishing leather boots. Just rub with the inside of the skin, and polish with a pad or soft cloth. This treatment has a wonderful cleansing effect, and makes the leather look almost like new. Use all your lemon rinds. When all the juice has been squeezed out of a lemon, save the rinds for getting stains off the hands. Rub the marks with the lemon and they will soon disappear. Lemon rinds thrown into the bedroom jug give a pleasant aroma to the room, and help to soften it.

LODGE NIGHT.

Coasting: I'm free any night you like, dearest.
Engaged: Of course, I'll give up the lodge for you, and anything else you thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. R. Cox rendered a solo; while Messrs. R. Cox and Anthony sang a duet. Messrs. Howie and Shule each gave recitations, and Mr. A. Douglas was the patter artist. The numbers of Messrs. Gratian and Taylor were much liked, as was a whistling turn by Mr. Les. McLeod. Mr. Frank Mackay was a splendid pianist.
Several toasts were honored. Following the toast of the "King" proposed by the chairman, was the toast of the Northcote Football Club proposed by Messrs. Wrey and Stott. Messrs. H. Morris and H. Smith responded. The next toast was that of the V.F.A., and was proposed by Mr. McLeod. Cr. Sinden and Mr. J. Hefferman of the Northcote Football Club replied. The last toast was that of the "old-timers" proposed by Mr. H. Morris and supported by the secretary, Mr. V. Bradley. Cr. McLeod initially responded.
The evening closed with a vote of thanks to the artists.

THORNBURY BOWLING CLUB.

1924-5 SEASON OFFICIALLY OPENED.

The luck of Thornbury's president (Cr. Phil Mayer), as far as concerned the weather for his social functions, promised to be even worse this, for on the very eve of the official opening of the greens on Saturday last, when he was expecting two or three hundred guests, it rained and it rained and prospects seemed hopeless.

However, there was a sudden and unexpected "clear-up" of the weather, the greens dried up to a fairly playable extent, the guests roared over several hundred strong, and what with the fluttering of gay bunting, the inspiring strains of the band, the humorous and interesting speeches, and the subsequent evening of afternoon tea in the lavishly and artistically decorated pavilion, things passed off with real success, all going merrily as the old proverbial saying.

Amongst those present were the Hon. John Cain, M.L.A., the mayor and mayoress of Northcove (Cr. and Mrs. A. H. Oldie), the mayor and mayoress of Preston (Cr. and Mrs. J. W. Adams), numerous councillors of both municipalities, and the leading officials of Preston and Northcove B.W.L.B.

The president (Cr. Phil Mayer) introduced the mayor and mayoress of Northcove (Cr. and Mrs. A. H. Oldie) who were warmly welcomed. He was pleased they were present and hoped to see them often in the future. He extended a warm and friendly welcome to all the visitors, and hoped they would have an enjoyable afternoon. Cr. Mayer then called upon the mayor and mayoress of Preston.

The mayor said it was a privilege to be present. Northcove was a fine town, and this was because they had a fine set of sporting people. He congratulated the club on its splendid green and the fact that it was open to the public.

Cr. Phil Mayer, the club's popular president, then called upon the mayor and mayoress of Preston. He was pleased they were present and hoped to see them often in the future. He extended a warm and friendly welcome to all the visitors, and hoped they would have an enjoyable afternoon.

SOLDIERS FIGHT FOR ANZAC TWEED INDUSTRY.

Of special interest to residents of Northcote is the fact that a number of returned soldiers have recently opened a factory at the corner of Elm and High streets, Northcote.

A short time ago the men concerned in the industry were becoming dispirited, and they had decided to carry on.

The general public are invited to inspect the factory, and the making of the tweed.

CHURCH NEWS.

The anniversary of the High Street Methodist Church will be celebrated to-morrow. The preacher in the morning, Rev. Charles Barber, is a son of the High Street paragon, his father, Rev. Bride Barber, having been stationed in Northcote during the early part of his life.

"Hills of Help" was the subject of Rev. P. W. White at the Congregational Church last Sunday morning. It was based on the 121st Psalm, "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help."

To-morrow, being Union Sunday, country ministers are exchanging with town ministers, and the preachers will be Rev. W. O. Lewis of Kyneton, and Rev. G. Gunson, home mission superintendent.

A memorial service to the late Mr. Marshall, J.P., will be held to-morrow morning at All Saints', Northcote.
